Open Arms Day Care Center for the Homeless

“And the King will answer them, ‘Truly I say to you, as you did it unto one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.’” Matthew 25:40

By action of the vestry, and as part of our local outreach, All Saints will have a special in-gathering for the Open Arms Day Care Center for the Homeless on August 8, 2010. The Day Care Center provides a place for the homeless to wash their clothes. They have an urgent need for paper towels and laundry detergent. The paper towels are used for cleaning, and wiping hands, etc. This will be a one-time in-gathering. Everyone, who can, is asked to bring paper towels or laundry detergent to church on Sunday, August 8. The detergent and paper towels will be delivered to Area Relief Ministries on Monday August 9.

Sunday School this Fall

After considering the input of parents, the Christian Formation Classes will keep the same schedule as in the past, immediately following the ten o'clock service. Our fall Sunday school classes will begin on September 12. Be on the alert for the Class offerings in the September issue of the Crown. The adult class that has continued meeting through the summer will take a two week break (August 29 and September 5) and will resume on the September 12 with all the other classes.

Inquirer/Confirmation Classes

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Bill Atwood will make an official visitation to All Saints on October 24, 2010. A series of classes will begin on August 29 and will continue through October 17 for those desirous of confirmation. The classes will be held during the regular Christian Education time slot on Sunday morning (11:30 – 12:15). If you are interested in Confirmation, please let Fr. Filiatreau know. The class will not meet Sunday, September 5.

Call to Small Group Bible Study

Tuesday Night Small Group

Know you need to study your Bible consistently...BUT... Don't know where to begin? If so, why not consider joining one of All Saints' small weeknight groups? And if Tuesday nights are good for you, please come and try us out!

All Saints' Tuesday night small group, already has a rich history of studies, including the complete books of Deuteronomy, Joshua, Obadiah (including the Judgments of the Bible), Acts, Galatians, Ephesians, Colossians, I & II Timothy, and Titus. In addition, we have examined Joseph as a type of Messiah in Genesis, the Tabernacle in the wilderness, end-time prophecy, and a just ended six-weeks' summer study on spiritual warfare.

When we resume meeting in late August (exact date to be announced), our topic will be "Elements of Christian Character." In that vein, we will be learning what Scripture has to say about reputation, forgiveness, integrity, loyalty, compassion, passion, patience, anger, and conflict resolution.

As our secondary resource for this particular study we will utilize (by permission) an online database. We will, as always, take as our primary source and final authority Scripture itself.

For more information, feel free to speak to any member of our group: Walter and Jane Townsend, Rich and Carole Beitz, Charles Richards, Williams Richards, Judy Rose, Harris Lake Smith, Tom and Linda Hayes.

Thursday Night Small Group

How can I always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks me for a reason for the hope that is in me?

How should I live tomorrow?

Should I forgive that person who cut my heart into pieces?

How do I know if I'm in God's will?

Should I pay these bills or let them slide?

We all have a wonderful Guide Book that answers these questions and more!

But first we must know what the Bible says before we can do what it says. (And even then it's not easy.)

Our Thursday night small group Bible study is a beginning. We depend heavily upon the Holy Spirit to direct us, so that we can "let the word of Christ dwell in you (us) richly in all wisdom."

We use a workbook, but no one will ever call upon you for an answer. We urge you to come and hear the discussion, even if you haven't been able to do your lesson that week. We pray for each other, for All Saints and for our concerns, large and small. And, just for fun, we go out to dinner together after completing 10 lessons. (There are 30 total.)

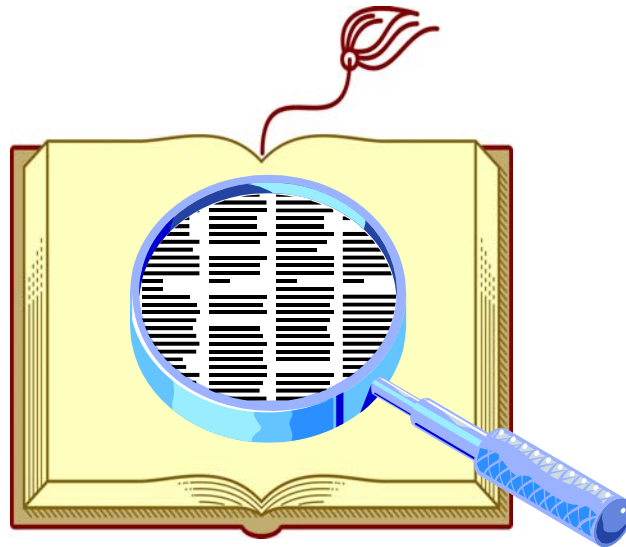

We would welcome a visit from anyone who might be interested in joining. Let us know and we'll provide a single lesson.

Our study this year of the Gospel of John will begin in September (date to be announced). If you have questions, please ask a member of our group ~~~ Gretchen, The Garretys, Marty Courcelle, Jim Warmbrod, Shirley Phillips, Marcelo Psungo, M. Montgomery. The Naillings will be joining us for the first time.

Outreach Tidbits

RIFA SNACK BACK PACK: Please place donated items in the blue box in the Sunday school room next to the office. Items needed this month are: canned pasta, canned spaghetti, fruit cups, Pop Tarts, peanut butter crackers, cheese crackers, individual boxes of raisins, granola bars.

Explorer's Bible Study

This is another opportunity for women to enlarge their spiritual condition in a community-wide study which follows the school year. This new study promises to be truly enlightening ~~~“The Only True God”

Following is the opening schedule of the three class times offered:

- Tuesday, August 24, 12:05 to 12:55 p.m., Poplar Heights Baptist Church (For those with really limited time.)
- Tuesday, August 24, 5:15 to 6:30 p.m. Union University.
- Wednesday, August 25, 9:25 to 11:15 a.m., Poplar Heights Baptist Church. (Children's classes and childcare are available on Wednesdays.)

Sign up sheets will be available in the reception area. New members are asked to sign up ahead of time so they can be assigned to a small group and to ensure that workbooks will be available. Please give your form to Gretchen.

Other members of All Saints who can give you insight into Explorer's include Judy Rose, Lynn Tatum, Marion Yarbrow, Linda Hayes and Grace Ann House.

PIE IN THE EYE Mission Accomplished!

Special Thanks and Thanksgiving!

VBS: Along with my wife, I would like to thank everyone for their tireless efforts in making VBS go so well, this year. From Sally Slack, Beth Moore, Sara Slack, and Anna Pearson's wonderful decorating talents, to Debbi Wagner and Harmony Sprinkle's teaching expertise, to Wendy Williams musical and acting talents, to Andrew Wagner, Ricky Psungo and Anna Pearson's own acting skills, to Gretchen Filiatreau and Joanna Priester's snack time lessons and snack-making skills, to Christian Wagner for his technical expertise ... you all did wonderful! I would especially like to give a shout out to my beautiful wife. I know only too well the amount of work she put into this event; and she did a magnificent job! I don't think any of the successes of this year's VBS could have happened without her being at the reigns!

Did I mention that we taught the love of Christ to over 30 different kids, over a span of five days?

Buffalo Canoe Trip: While we didn't stay overnight this time, we certainly enjoyed the time that was spent connecting with God and His creation. In the midst of the busyness that is the summer, for these youth, it was a wonderful time to relax and regain a sense of what beauty there is in life. We hope to enjoy this endeavor once more, next year.

Children's News

Children's Church: Although VBS is over, our ministry to the children is not. Children's Church, in the coming months, will be focusing on song and word, and how these two elements of worship help us to learn and grow as disciples. Children from ages 3-10 are welcome to join us!

Youth News

Parental Quarterly Meeting: Sunday, September 19 (an hour before YACs). Letting you know a month in advance will allow you to make any necessary schedule changes. From Halloween party to Thanksgiving Celebration to Christmas Party to YouthQuake, at this meeting you will receive dates and an informational calendar on each event coming up for the next three months. Please make every effort to be there!

Fifth Quarter: The first game of the year is USJ going head-to-head with TCA at Trinity! The game will be occurring at 7:30 p.m. on August 27th. As such, this will be our first official Fifth Quarter meeting of the year, so be ready to head over to All Saints at around 10:00 p.m. Hope to see y'all there!

YACs: All youth!!! You are invited to come and join us as we cover a twelve-week discussion on faith and how it applies to our lives as Christians. We will be reading Scripture, listening to music, watching video clips, and discussing the finer points of what it means to have faith in Christ. Bring friends!!

YOUTHQUAKE 2011!!!: As little announced as it has been, this coming YouthQuake will be from January 14-16th of 2011. The cost will be the same as last year, $150 per person. We need chaperones, preferably one male and one female (both over the age of 23), to assist us. If you are willing to help out, please let Fr. Justin know.

Also!!! Youth, this year will be a little different from last. First, if you plan on going, you will need to have logged in at least 10 volunteer hours of helping All Saints in various service projects throughout the coming months. Second, if you need financial assistance, we will be raising money to help you. However, this time we expect that you will completely participate in the raising of said money. We will hash out what this means in the weeks ahead.

College

Reaching Out to the Students in August: This year will be a little different from preceding years, as we are taking a more hands-on approach to reaching out to you college students. This means meeting y'all where you are, instead of you coming to us. And this will all begin with our building close relationships with the chaplain staff at both Lambuth and Union. Fr. Justin+ will be spending regular days attending chapel services and lunch periods. You college students be looking out for him!

LIT 101: We want your opinion of what LIT 101 should look like, and where we should hold it (preferably closer to you). If you have any suggestions, please let Fr. Justin know. We will, however, be starting up services on the 25th, so be prepared!!

Fr. Justin and The Rev. Julie Inducted into the Order of St. Alcuin

You may begin to notice Fr. Justin wearing a black article of clothing along with his normal wear for Sundays. This article of clothing (known as a habit or scapular) is a visual representation of his life-long dedication to the monastic Order of St. Alcuin (often referred to as the OSA, and a third-order within the Order of St. Benedict). Julie and he were inducted into the order on July 22, 2010, at the CANA conference they attended in Herndon, VA. To help you better understand their purpose, the below information is taken directly from their website:

The members of the Order of Saint Alcuin live by the Rule of St. Benedict. This presents an objective form of life, strong, unchanging from year to year, a life of work, study and liturgical prayer which can be seen and heard, lived in conditions which aim at representing all that is best in Christian family life, with sisters and brothers living and serving God in the world, for all to see, with all the non-Christian elements removed.

The message of the Order of Saint Alcuin is simple and direct. Work, obey Holy Scripture, praise God in common, study, and pray to Him alone; enter the Church and pray.

The Shorts...

Short articles, reminders and updates, that is!

THANK YOU

VBS was wonderful! So many people contributed to its success: teachers, leaders, and those who were willing to help wherever needed. I am so incredibly grateful to all of the volunteers for their time and creativity!! Special thanks to Debbi, Christian, and Andrew Wagner, Sally and Sara Slack, Gretchen Filiatreau, Joanna Priestler, Harmony Sprinkle, Wendy Williams, Ricky Psungo, Lindy Tatum, George Tatum, Anna Pearson, and all other volunteers. We also exceeded our goal for items to donate to Project Dominican Republic by collecting 139 items! The kids (and volunteers too) had a wonderful and memorable time. We thank you for your prayers, contributions, and support!

Julie Baldwin

PLAYGROUND

We hope everyone has noticed the new playground being established; how can you miss that huge swing set and the tall tower with the zip-line. Please express thanks to Angie Box who has planned and ordered all the new equipment and arranged for its installation. Also a note of thanks to Brandon Moore and Nathan Shelby for helping get the equipment moved and set up.

DISCRETIONARY FUND

The undesignated offering, on the second Sunday of each month, goes to the Rector's Discretionary Fund. In the current economic times the demands on the Discretionary Fund have been much greater, please consider giving generously to this fund the second Sunday of each month.

FIRST COMMUNION

Jenna Ann Box and Anna Caroline Moore completed first communion classes and received their first communion on July 11, 2010.

The sympathy of the parish is extended to Frank and JoAnn Gillingham. Frank's father, Frank G. Gillingham, died on July 22, 2010 in Vero, Florida. “May he go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kinadom.”
